Course Summary

This NCFE Level 2 Certificate in Sports Coaching will provide a great introduction to the sport vocation and also the introductory skills to start a career in sport coaching / employment in the sport sector. This qualification can also prepare learners for progression to further and higher education programmes.

What You Will Learn

During this program of study, you will participate in and learn to deliver coaching sessions, develop individual skills and tactical awareness and understand the importance of participating in sport and physical activity. Additionally, you will look in to the structure and function of the human body and the systems within it and how they respond to exercise.

Learning is delivered through both theory and practical based sessions. Further learning will be carried out on work experience, from visiting guest speakers and on day visits and residential opportunities.

You will also be expected to take responsibility for independent study outside of your timetable, as directed by your tutors, using our Virtual Learning Environment platforms.

Benefits of studying with us:

- You will have the opportunity to access free health and fitness development facilities at Bradford College.
- Our lecturers all bring a wealth of experience, from a range of sporting and relevant industrial backgrounds.
- Well established links with local, national and international providers allow for valuable experiences to be gained throughout the course.
- Progress coaches and intervention officers support your journey to success through your programme of study.
