Course Summary

If you chose to study Art and Design at Bradford School of Art, you will be provided with a broad education in the Arts, encompassing intellectual, creative and technical skills.

Helping you realise your creative vision and industry potential, you will develop your own sustained, innovate and reflective art and design practice. You will also build upon your critical thinking, evaluation and analysis skills as well as your research capabilities, to enhance the ability to communicate ideas visually and verbally.

You will also benefit from relationships Bradford College has with a number of important cultural institutions in the region, including The National Science and Media Museum, Cartwright Hall, The Yorkshire Craft Centre, South Square Gallery, Impressions Gallery and Dean Clough in Halifax, Dear Shed, Leeds City Library, Sunny Bank Mills, Bradford Cultural Voice Brick Box, Delius Arts Centre, Kala Sangham Arts Centre and Born in Bradford Project.

What You Will Learn

You will develop your own sustained, innovate and reflective art and design practice. You will also build upon your critical thinking, evaluation and analysis skills as well as your research capabilities, to enhance the ability to communicate ideas visually and verbally.

Modules

Year 1 (Level 4):

- Techniques and Processes 1 – Explore both graphic design and photography in hands-on workshops. You'll acquire essential technical skills in industry-standard software and camera equipment, while developing an eye for composition and visual storytelling. You will experiment with various design elements, typography, and image manipulation techniques, as well as photographic processes including lighting, framing, and post-production. The module includes both digital and traditional methods.
- Studio Practice 1 – Experiment with various Fine Art and Design techniques, challenge conventional limits and cultivate unique creative methods. You will acquire diverse skills, generate concepts in the studio, and settle into the academic setting. Your artistic development is nurtured through one-on-one guidance, workshop orientations, collaboration with peers, project briefings, and presentations by visiting artists.
- Professional Development for the Creative Industries 1 – Preparing you to thrive in professional settings as an artist. You'll have trips to museums, galleries, talks, design shows and exhibitions.
- Critical Studies 1 – develop your investigation and analysis skills of key artists, designers and art and design movements

Year 2 (Level 5): Further development of skills and developments of the above:

- Techniques and Processes 2
- Studio Practice 2
- Professional Practice Critical Studies 2

Year 3 (Level 6):

- A project in the final year will solidify all your learning through a body of work which will form part of the Bradford School of Art Summer Show.
